

Date / / No

design a weather station and various classes that are interested in the weather station's data, including a user interface, a logger and an alert system.
 * user interface, logger and Alert system are all interested in data and want to be notified when the new data come from sensors

Solution

